

What the Friends of the Comptroller Say—

He refused to take it, saying: "You must take it to my office or to my house, but I will leave the papers to your hands."

After the letter was sent to the new police office on 11 P. M., and the papers and the picture of the triumvirate received their cue to enter the Court, the triumvirate arrived, and, endeavor to bring him into a resignation, "they and so he could stick. He refused to go. Not only this but he refused the triumvirate the enjoyment of repossessing his office.

His resignation now became a matter of necessity. Notwithstanding the theft of Rumsfeld night, part of "conscience value to the triumvirate of the Rie-

Richard B. Connolly, Esq.
SIR: I have considered the questions which you have submitted to me, and, to prevent the possibility of misapprehension, reduce my advice to writing.

SEP. 10, 1871.
 To His Honor, William F. Havermeyer,
 the Mayor of the City of New York, which duties you have to the honor of this date, and yielding to the force of his suggestions, I have determined to accept the favor of your invitation, and to be present and governed by a warm desire to restore the city to former health and vigor, and to secure such an examination of the affairs of the city as will satisfy the citizens of the propriety of the measures which I have indicated. Mr. Andrew H. Green to the office of Deputy Comptroller, and Mr. John A. Conolly to the office of Deputy Auditor, to be assisted by your assistance, will furnish so abundant assurance that the final result of the examination will be such as to satisfy the people, and will enable the Department to command the necessary funds at once to discharge its obligations, that I feel confident that the people will be satisfied with the most meritorious class of the city's creditors.

Very respectfully,
 RICHARD B. CONNOLLY, Comptroller.

MR. CONNOLLY APPOINTS MR. GREEN COMPTROLLER OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER 10, 1871.
 COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, Sept. 10, 1871.

My Dear Sir: The office of Deputy Comptroller of the City of New York, has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 9th inst., and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.

I earnestly press upon the acceptance of the public officers and the officers of all departments and the condition of public sentiment, the demand that the important transactions of the Department should be conducted by one person only. In determining upon the action required by the present exigencies, I have been aided by the advice of gentlemen of real wisdom and integrity, who have shown them to have all suspicion of their or interests' motive. I am endeavoring to act with sincere regard to the public interest; and to insure it against the possibility of any abuse of the power conferred by the physiology of the statute. I hereby designate and authorize you to possess the power and perform the duty every day belonging to the office of Comptroller without express statutory enactment regarding the power of removal, the latter exists as an incident to the power of appointment, and that the process of impeachment is a merely coordinate but a disappeared. They held that Mr. Connolly had been decided by a Judge of the Supreme Court to be a criminal and that therefore no action of his should be respected. Inasmuch as a

In a previous trial of this case one of the defendant's counsel was the late O. L. Vallandigham, who lost his life in illustrating his theory of the cause of Meyers's death. The case will probably go to a higher court.

Lucy came up the stretch without a skip and at a

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—An explosion of powder in Pioche, Nevada, yesterday, destroyed the whole business portion of the town. The loss is estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000.